

Organisations	Project	Grant
Migrant Resource Centre of South Australia	'Community Circles of Strength' project which creates connections between demographic groups across new or establishing multicultural organisations.	$190,213
YWCA Adelaide	'Pathways to Leadership - Empowering Multicultural Girls and Young Women to Activate Their Leadership Potential' project in Adelaide's inner north which provides leadership programs and mentoring for young members of new and emerging communities.	$105,176
Youthinc Incorporated	'The Vox Box - a Social Enterprise', a unique initiative for unemployed multicultural youth to design, construct and operate a mobile café and multimedia pod that encourages cultural awareness and self-expression at public events.	$172,400
Time for Kids	'Culturally Connected Communities' project which matches children from new and emerging communities with skilled volunteer carers who connect them to vital learning opportunities and experiences.	$140,115
Seniors Information Service	'CALD Seniors Mediation and Conflict Resolution Project' to deliver preventative services and promote awareness of abuse against senior citizens in culturally diverse communities.	$171,000
Northern Domestic Violence Service	To translate pamphlets on domestic violence into languages such as Vietnamese, Swahili, Khmer and Dinka, which are spoken by women in the northern suburbs.	$2,772
Multicultural Youth SA	For 'Brave Hearts', a train-the-trainer program for schools and community groups aimed at reducing domestic violence against young women and families.	$200,000
Middle Eastern Communities Council of SA	For 'Telling Our Stories', a project for Middle Eastern communities to share their experiences of migration and settlement through exhibitions and presentations.	$129,000

Organisations	Project	Grant
Dulwich Centre Foundation	For 'Contributing to Cohesion and Harmony', a project to train and support school counsellors to facilitate knowledge sharing between Muslim, Christian and Jewish students.	$128,520
Community Centres SA	For their 'Build Social Cohesion and Community Harmony through Community and Neighbourhood Centres' project which employs a Project Officer to build partnerships with multicultural organisations, deliver cultural competency training and develop cultural inclusivity plans.	$127,426
School of Chinese Music and Arts	For 'Multicultural Giggle/Storytime SA', a project to benefit approximately 4000 families with young children by sharing multicultural nursery rhymes and songs at local libraries.	$110,687
Australian Refugee Association	For 'Safe and Confident Job Seekers', a project for new arrivals that addresses barriers to employment and builds skills through casework support and training courses.	$199,888
Northern Community Legal Centre Inc.	For 'CALD Families Project', which will develop cultural-appropriate Community Legal Education programs to increase access to legal services, and promote understanding of the law in South Australia and how to access and comply with the legal system.	$140,000