

MEDIA RELEASE

Government of South Australia

Multicultural SA

Governor's Multicultural Award Winners Announced

Seven outstanding individuals and five organisations have won 2010 Governor's Multicultural Awards.

The Governor of South Australia, His Excellency Rear Admiral Kevin Scarce AC CSC RANR, presented the awards at Government House on Tuesday evening.

The awards, open to everyone in the community, honour outstanding contributions to promoting social harmony and inclusivity and the positive influence of cultural diversity in the community.

The 2010 winners are:

Outstanding Individual Achievement
Volunteer Award

Mr Peter Do
Joint Winners - Mr Saroop Singh Johal and Ms Emiko Mayer

Public Sector Award
Private Sector Award

Western Area Multicultural Youth Services
Ms Domenica Latorre (Miridella P/L)

Community Sector – Individual
Community Sector – Organisation

Mr Buol Garang A. Juuk
Joint Winners - Limestone Coast Migrant Resource Centre and Lutheran Community Care Murraylands

Youth – Individual

Mr Akoi Guong

Media Award – Individual

Ms Karen Ashford

Media Award – Organisation

Radio Televisione Italiana

Lieutenant Governor and South Australian Multicultural and Ethnic Affairs Commission Chairman, Hieu Van Le A.O, said "The awards are judged by an independent panel appointed in consultation with the Governor and with the Multicultural Communities Council. They are an opportunity to acknowledge exceptional achievements.

"They encourage all South Australians to recognise cultural diversity as a positive influence in the community and to promote multiculturalism and community harmony."

Media enquiries: AGD Media Relations Line 0422 007 069
Biographies of all award winners are available on request.